

LDSHomeShare MEMBER BENEFITS

Welcome to LDSHomeShare. We hope you enjoy the benefits of using this site. Please help us by recommending ideas etc that would help make the site better. Write to us at ldshomeshare@gmail.com .

- Since each HomeShare member shares their homes with other members, you enjoy a safe and clean LDS environment.
- If you wish not to participate in the home sharing option, feel free to use the other features and benefits.
- Make new LDS friends each time you use LDSHomeShare wherever you travel or have other members staying with you.
- SAVE money! Using LDSHomeShare system is very reasonable. We ask members to contribute 5-20% of what they would have spent staying at a hotel etc.
- LDSHomeShare will offer other special valued travel promotions and discounts as we grow. These will include cruises, tours, and hotel/motel locations.
- Since many LDS historical areas are highly visited and these areas simply do not enough LDS members to accommodate the demand, LDSHomeShare will be finding and recommending hotels/motels/bed and breakfasts etc. to stay at.
- We will also add discounts/coupons etc for food establishments and entertainment in various areas.
- Please let us know if you know of LDS members who own travel/food/entertainment businesses throughout the USA, so we can contact them and add them to our sites.
- Some of these specials will be emailed to you and will also be listed on the LDSHomeShare and/or the LDSYardSale website(s). We hope these sites can be helpful to all LDS throughout the USA. We will be adding other international countries in the future.
- Let's make this fun and helpful to all LDS members.
- Check out the www.LDSYardSale.com. List anything you want to buy, sell, or trade. Invite all your LDS friends and family to join this site too! If you set up an account at LDSYardSale, please set up a new account with a different email and password. This will help us keep things simplified.

- If you own a business, please list it free at www.LDSYardSale.com We recommend you use the Tag/Search word LDS, so persons looking for LDS related businesses you will be found.
- Invite your friends and family to use both sites. Invite them using our INVITATION EMAIL SYSTEM located on the home pages of both www.LDSHomeShare.com and www.LDSYardSale.com
- Let us know your ideas to make the website better. We hope you will benefit from being a member.

Thank you again for using our sites. We hope you help us grow quickly so that we can benefit each other as we travel.
